The Knights Coaching Staff

Terry Rooney was named the fifth head coach in the history of the UCF baseball program early in the summer of 2008. After a 12 year stint as an assistant coach at 6 different Division 1 programs, including Notre Dame and LSU, Coach Rooney will now lead the UCF program to the upper echelon of college baseball. One of the nation's premier recruiters, Coach Rooney has compiled 8 classes that have ranked among the national leaders, including the #1 ranked recruiting class in the nation in 2007 at LSU. The same class that won the College World Series in 2009. Rooney's first recruiting class at UCF was the program's best ever, which ranked fourth nationally.

A proven winner, Coach Rooney has guided 7 teams to NCAA postseason play, including Omaha and the College World Series.

Coach Rooney has the knowledge, experience and passion to get player's to reach their full potential. He has the innate ability to evaluate a player's skills, explain strengths and weaknesses and motivate each individual to become the best player they can possibly be.
